48% of Business Owners are kept awake at night with worry

Why? Operational Challenges
Let us help change that!

Why Businesses Fail

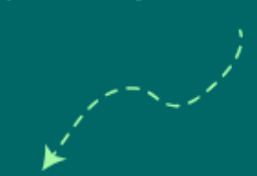

Approximately 20% of new businesses fail within their first two years, 45% within five years, and 65% within ten years. Only 25% survive to 15 years or more, often due to running out of money or poor employee management. Many that do survive fail to grow sufficiently to provide lucrative owner salaries and profits.

The Main Reason:

Those businesses lack repeatable processes to support recurring revenue which is needed to sustain growth and profitability.

What can you do?

At LADR, we help businesses create and implement repeatable processes that drive growth and support recurring revenue, ensuring long-term success. Let us guide you in building a solid foundation that reduces the risk of failure and maximizes your profitability. Contact us today for a complimentary discovery call!
